	I was dispatched to this residence in reference to a general complaint. The victim wanted to discuss an issue involving her son. Upon arrival and after speaking with victim, I determined this was going to be a domestic battery. The victim stated her son was sleeping in his vehicle near the Walmart on First Ave. She was called by a deputy and she went to Walmart. The victim stated her son has been in rehab and on probation. She picked up her son and brought him with her to this residence. This is her parents residence and has been helping them with medical needs. The victim felt that her son was on something and was concerned about his safety. The offender tried to leave and the victim put her arms around him to try and keep in from leaving. The offender pinned her up against the wall and the victim bit him on the upper arm. The offender then threw her to the ground and started kicking her in the face. He then fled the residence on foot. I observed a large bruise on the victim's lower right side of her chin. I documented the bruise with my body camera.
