Reported: 03/01/2025. On the listed date, I, Officer Hastings, was working off-duty at Timeout Bar in full uniform. I was approached by a bartender who stated a male had thrown an object which struck the bartender on the side of his head. I made contact with the male, later identified as the offender, and advised him of the complaint against him. The offender became argumentative and was then asked to leave the bar due to the mentioned incident. The offender was told to stay outside the bar and not to return for the night. The offender at the time walked out of the bar without incident. A moment later, I observed the offender had re-entered the bar and was sitting on the benches outside the restrooms. I walked the offender out again and gave him the trespass warning advising him he would go to jail if he came back inside. As the offender was standing outside, a patron and his girlfriend exited the bar and I observed the patron suddenly stop. I heard yelling and the girlfriend trying to hold her boyfriend back from the offender. I quickly exited the bar to stop a physical fight from occurring and told the offender to leave the mall property. The offender again argued that he did have to leave and he didn't have a ride. I went to take the offender into custody for disorderly conduct and public intoxication when he tried to pull his arms away from me. I used the necessary force in order to effect an arrest and place handcuffs on the offender. I called for an additional officer and Officer Rose arrived. Throughout every encounter with the offender, I could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath and noticed that he was swaying as he was standing outside the bar. Officer Rose transported the offender to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center. Officer Rose notified me that the offender had a warrant for his arrest from a county in Kentucky. The offender was housed on the listed charges as well as his warrant.		HASTINGS, M. J.
