When officers could not make contact with anyone inside and taking into account the age and medical conditions of the victim, officers made entry into the home through the open window. Officers again announced their presence. Officers noticed inside the home a large amount of clutter and hoarding of items. Officers also found in the bathroom the toilet filled with human feces to the brim. The sink in the bathroom was also full. Officers saw numerous cockroaches inside the home. Officers located the female in her bedroom. She stated that she did not know who was outside and that is why she did not come to the door. The victim was in a sweatshirt and pants. The victim was visibly sweating. The victim's house did have water and power. The victim stated that she was fine and was not showing signs of having a mental episode. A report was completed to document what officers witnessed.		COOLEY, M. C.
