LW 2507794 Animal Offense- Neglect Of An Animal	Society VICTIM of Animal Offense- Neglect Of An Animal (C), at 2156 Maxwell Ave, Evansville, IN, between 12:00, 05/02/2025 and 13:00, 05/02/2025. Reported: 05/02/2025. Officers were dispatched to assist animal control in removing a dog from a residence. Officers arrived and spoke with the animal control officer (ACO). He stated there was a dog in the backyard that was very emaciated. He stated he attempted to make contact with the owner but had no success. Officers and ACO made entry in the backyard and took control of the dog. Officers could see the dog`s ribs. The dog`s stomach was very sunk into the point where you could see the bottom of the rib cage. The vertebrae in the back were also visible. There was a pot of water on the back porch, but it was yellow. The water appeared to be run off from the stove that had grease on it (stove was on the back porch located next to the pot). The other bowls on the back porch were empty and the dog had no access to food. Officers were told that the dog had been thin for some time. There was also said to be another dog in the backyard but had not been seen in weeks. That dog was said to be a little smaller than this dog. Officers could not locate the dog while in the backyard, but observed fresh dirt in the backyard, that gave way when stepped on, which was consistent with a whole that was recently filled in. The dog was later brought to animal control, and a warrant was applied for neglect.		FAHSE, A. G.
