Reported: 05/28/2025. No victims listed. The victim stated that she was conducting a child custody exchange with her child's father (IO) and the alleged offender. The offender is identified as the father's girlfriend. The criminal mischief occurred at Casey's, located at 1900 Oak Hill Rd. The victim indicated there have been prior issues involving the alleged offender. Generally the child exchanges are at Wesslemans Grocery but not on this date. The incident reportedly occurred four (4) days prior, on 05/24/2025, between approximately 4:03 PM and 4:10 PM. The victim stated she was seated in her 2016 GMC Terrain SUV in the parking lot of Casey's at the time. According to the victim, her eight (8) year old son was visibly upset and crying. She alleged that both the child's father and the offender were contributing to the child's distress. She further reported that the father was attempting to video record the child making statements indicating he did not want to be with his mother. The victim noted a prior dispute had occurred by phone regarding the father's request to keep the child overnight. The victim feels the father forces the child to make statements. The victim stated that she attempted to quickly remove her son from the location. However, she alleges that both the father and the offender approached her vehicle, placing her in "great fear for her life." She reported that the offender struck her vehicle with her body, creating a loud noise as the vehicle was surrounded. The victim believes the offender also kicked or punched the vehicle, resulting in approximately $100 in damage to the rear bumper. The victim believes it is more |   | ARBAUGH, W. R. |

|  | likely the victim kicked the vehicle causing the damage.  |   |               |
|  | The victim emphasized that she was extremely fearful of the offender and reported that, as a result of the incident, both she and her child cried in bed until noon the following day. The victim further stated that she felt the offender impeded her ability to leave the scene promptly during the custody exchange.  |   |               |
|  | This report was taken via phone. The victim was provided a case number during the call. She advised that she had contacted Casey's to request surveillance footage of the incident but was informed that it may take up to one week for the video to be available. According to the victim she did not call 911 because her cell phone did not have power and she generally fears police. The victim lives in Vanderburgh County and was told she was referred to EPD at a later time. I, Lt. Arbaugh was made aware of the victim's request by email to have a report taken and quickly contacted the victim.  |   |               |
|  | I did not contact the alleged offender while taking the report. There are prior reports involving custody exchange issues. The victim and her child were in no distress while this report was taken by phone but the mother did indicate she was considering not following the parenting time schedule as a result.   |   |               |
|  | The victim was advised on how to proceed with the VCPO with the misd. report. [05/28/2025 16:41, WARBAUGH, 1650, EPD]   |   |               |
