	We were dispatched to this address in reference to a domestic violence in progress. A neighbor called for the victim and stated there was a physical altercation. We arrived and spoke to the victim, who was at the neighbor's apartment. She stated she lives in an apartment on another floor, but has been staying with the offender for about a month. She was laying in bed with him and was trying to be affectionate. This apparently upset the offender and she said he started to choke her. I observed red marks on the victims neck. The victim was able to get away and came next door to her neighbors apartment.
	The victim also stated there was physical altercation last night between her and the offender. She said during that altercation, the offender broke her hand. I observed her right hand was swollen and bruised. When I asked her what happened to cause that injury, she stated she could not remember exactly and that they had both been drinking.
	We attempted to make contact at the offenders apartment and we did not get an answer. The victim stated that he might have left.
