No victims listed. On 07/26/2025 at approximately 2141 hundred hours, I, Officer Vires, was dispatched to the intersection of West Missouri Street and North Fifth Avenue in reference to a Domestic Violence in progress. Officer Roberts arrived on scene first. Upon arrival, Officer Roberts had located the offender, Michael Travers, in the middle of the road and placed him into custody. I went to talk to the other offender, Christal Houghton, that was involved in the run. I located Houghton behind 1104 N Fulton Avenue laying behind the building, on the ground. Houghton stated that nothing happened and she was just sleeping. I proceeded to ask her questions about the male in question and she stated that she did not remember anything happening. While talking to Houghton, I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting off her persons and I could see a pint of alcohol in her bag. While talking to Houghton she stated that she had been drinking a little tonight. Houghton also had red glassy eyes. When I started to walk to Officer Roberts to see what he had, I told Houghton to stand at the back of one of the patrol vehicles. Houghton then started to walk off. I asked Officer Roberts if he would do a Preliminary Breath Test on Houghton. Officer Roberts did and Houghton was over the legal limit. I determined that I wanted to take Houghton for public intoxication. I transported Houghton to VCCC.		VIRES, R. M.
