Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Cunningham stated Stanley threw a lamp over in the front room area. Cunningham stated she was on the phone with her niece and Stanley went into the other room and when Stanley returned, accused Cunningham of hitting her in the head. Cunningham denied the altercation becoming physical and also had a calm demeanor about her while speaking with her on scene. Officers on scene did not see injuries to the side of Stanley's face. Stanley had a very small lump on the center of her forehead without any redness that would appear that it was a very recent injury. The lump on her forehead did not seem consistent with being struck by a fist. Other than the lamp knocked over, Officers did not see any other disturbance or items out of place that would make it appear a physical altercation occurred. Officers gave Stanley a case number and advised her as to how to follow up with the Prosecutor's Office. While speaking with Stanley, she was very irate still and stated she thought Cunningham was going to kill her and complained to Officers that she went to jail last time for a injury that she claimed was bug bite. Officer Vanfleet stated there is a long history between these two parties having issues. Cunningham left the residence to stay with her niece for the evening prior to Officer's leaving the scene.
