Due to conflicting statements combined with uncooperation, officers explained the process of getting a protective order to both sides. The caller and her daughter had come here at the request of the callers son. The son called the daughter to come help him, and the daughter heard multiple females yelling in the back round. They came to the address and the verbal altercation started. The daughter stated that the sons child's mother pulled a knife on her and threatened her with it. The child's mother stated the daughter came to the address to fight her, and she knew the daughter was bigger than her so she drew the knife to defend herself when the daughter came toward her. All parties minus one claimed to live here and had established residency.	HASSLER, J. H.
