Reported: 08/29/2025. I was West bound on Walnut Ave in marked patrol vehicle 2109 around 1050 hours when I was flagged down by a METS bus driver. There was a black male walking away from the bus. The driver told me he had been in an altercation with another male who was still on the bus and refusing to leave. I followed her onto the bus and spoke with the male(victim) who was still on the bus. He agreed to exit and speak with me about what had happened. The victim said he had been on the bus when the listed offender got on at this location. He said they have had previous issues and that the offender has been going around town spreading lies about him. When the offender got on the bus he exchanged words with the victim. The victim stated the offender then approached him and started throwing punches while he was still seated. There were three individuals seated on the back of the bus and at least one of them confirmed that the victim was not the aggressor. I did not get a chance to speak with them though due to the bus leaving after I got the victim off. The victim had several marks and scratches around his face and neck but no major injuries. He said the offender did not stop the altercation until the bus driver said she was calling the police. The victim was given a case number and advised on how to seek a Protective Order. I called METS and they stated they would get the video of the incident to EPD once they've had a chance to retrieve it.		GREEN, R. E.
