Reported: 08/17/2025. Officers were dispatched to the listed address for a domestic violence. I arrived and talked to the victim who stated that she was physically assaulted by her child's father. They were coming back to the house from a night out when they started arguing. Both of them have trauma when it comes to their parents so they use that against each other in arguments and bring that up. She knew he would bring up her past so she brought up his first. The argument then escalated more than she had intended so she got out of the car and tried to go inside their house to defuse things. When she tried to go in the house he stayed in the car and would not unlock the house door for her. She tried to get him to but he wouldn't and then she thought he was going to try and leave her there so she jumped in the back seat of the car. When she got back in the car, he locked the doors to where she could not get out. He then turned towards the back seat and started hitting her in the face with his fist. He hit her about ten times before getting out and leaving the scene. As he left, she went to a neighbor to call 911. The male was unable to be located by officers in the area. The victim had visible injuries to her face and blood on her shirt. I took photographs of this with my body camera. She stated that her head hurt to the point she wanted and ambulance to go to the hospital and get checked out. The two live together and have a child in common.		VANCLEAVE, J. T.
