	On 9/30/25 at approximately 0003, I, Officer J. Myers, and Officer Harrington observed a black male traveling west on a bicycle in the eastbound lane of Columbia St. We conducted a traffic stop on the male, later identified as DeMarshaun Sherman, at Columbia St/Garfield Ave. I asked and was granted consent to search by Sherman. I located a green, plant-like substance in the front, right pocket of Sherman's pants. Through my training and experience, I knew the substance to be marijuana.
	Sherman was cooperative and said he purchased the substance from a local smoke shop. He said the substance was a legal look-alike of marijuana. Sherman was unable to produce the original packaging for the substance. Sherman had no narcotics history, so Officer Harrington and I seized the substance and released Sherman. We advised Sherman to keep the original packaging on him in the future.
