LW 2518175 Found Property	Found Property (C), at 199 W Columbia St/garfield Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:03, 09/30/2025 and 00:05, 09/30/2025. Reported: 09/30/2025. No victims listed. On 9/30/25 at approximately 0003, I, Officer J. Myers, and Officer Harrington observed a black male traveling west on a bicycle in the eastbound lane of Columbia St. We conducted a traffic stop on the male, later identified as DeMarshaun Sherman, at Columbia St/Garfield Ave. I asked and was granted consent to search by Sherman. I located a green, plant-like substance in the front, right pocket of Sherman's pants. Through my training and experience, I knew the substance to be marijuana. Sherman was cooperative and said he purchased the substance from a local smoke shop. He said the substance was a legal look-alike of marijuana. Sherman was unable to produce the original packaging for the substance. Sherman had no narcotics history, so Officer Harrington and I seized the substance and released Sherman. We advised Sherman to keep the original packaging on him in the future. The substance tested positive for marijuana using a Nark II test. The field weight of the substance was 1.6 grams. The substance was marked for destruction and placed in the west sector drop box.		MYERS, J. J.

The Asset Protection Manager stated that subjects had already left the store and had bags that contained merchandise. The Asset Protection Manager stated that the offender would be found sitting at the EMTS bus shelter at the far end east side of the parking lot. I arrived and made contact with the female offender. I asked the female offender about the items in the bags. The female stated that all the bags belonged to her. I asked the female offender about the other two bags. I asked her where she got the bags. The female eventually stated that she had selected the bags and all the items in the bags and exited the store without paying for any of the items a. The action of entering the store, selecting two bags, filling the items with merchandise, passing all points of sale, then exiting the store failing to render payment for the items selected and taken from the store deprived Meijer of the value ($400.00) of the items selected and taken from the store. While speaking with the female, she blurted out that she had to defecate. While still speaking with her, she appeared to concentrate very hard and a foul smell emanated from her person. She stated she defecated in her pants. She turned around and I could see what appeared to be a lump that I believed was human feces. I instructed the female to go to the bathroom at the Meijer gas station to clean herself, and I would continue the investigation. Prior to going to the restroom, I informed her I would meet her at the gas station. Prior to her going to the restroom, I seized all of the bags she had. I also asked her to give me her state-issued ID. Originally, she stated the ID was in one of the bags, but I was unable to locate it. She eventually handed me her state-issued ID, and the ID matched the female offender. The female never went to the bathroom and took off running north toward Menards. Officers came to the area to locate her, and she was sighted by multiple people entering restaurants and different areas trying to elude police. Officers were never able to locate the female offender.		REID, M. J.
