I located a clear plastic bag of a green, plant-like substance in his front left pants pocket. I also located a white, metal smoking device with an orange tip and burnt residue. Through my training and experience, I knew the substance to be marijuana and the smoking devices to be used as a method of ingesting illegal narcotics. I read Hurst his Miranda Rights, and he agreed to speak with me. I asked Hurst what substances he used the smoking devices for. Hurst said he used the glass smoking device for methamphetamine. He said he used the metal smoking device for marijuana. During the search of Hurst, the evidence bag containing the glass smoking device fell out of my pocket, and the device was broken. I photographed the glass smoking device with my bodyworn camera and disposed of it in Ofc.
