Tot.Est.Loss: $720. On 10/28/24 at approximately 1126, I, Officer J. Myers, and Officer Hassler arrived at the listed address, Tri State Food Bank, for a theft report. I made contact with the reporter and manager of the food bank, Cassi Escamilla. Escamilla stated a group of homeless individuals had set up tents and cut the chain link fence around the food bank. She stated they then entered the shed in the northeast corner of the property and took tools. I observed two tents set up in the woods directly east of the food bank's fence. I also observed a section of the chain link fence that had been cut on the east side of the shed. The hole in the fence was large enough for a person to move through. Escamilla stated the fence would cost about $150 to repair. Escamilla was able to point out property in the woods that had been taken from the shed. Officer Meeks arrived and assisted Officer Hassler and I in entering the woods to find the suspects. We did not locate anyone in the area. Escamilla and an employee of the food bank, Raul Reyes, came to the encampment and identified several stolen items. They recovered a shovel and a black and blue tote. They stated the assorted tools inside the tote were missing, including a red and black drill with sockets/bits. They also located an empty pack of ratchet straps they said had been in the shed.
