Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Officers were dispatched in reference to a domestic violence in progress. Dispatch advised a male stated he was assaulted and his lip was busted. Dispatch stated the male refused to answer questions. Upon arriving on scene, the victim was observed standing in the driveway waiting. Officers observed a large open laceration to the victim's lower lip. The victim stated he woke up to some "bullshit" and he and his old lady had a dispute. The victim stated she did something he didn't agree with. The victim stated he did not verbally abuse her, did not put his hands on her, and went downstairs to go to sleep in his room. The victim stated the offender did not like the text messages he had gave her because of the way she was acting in front of him and the whole family. The victim stated he was hit with an object and he was not sure what it was. The victim stated he was not arguing or trying to put anyone in jail, he just wanted someone to put a stitch in so he could go about his business. The victim stated he had a plan to separate and just wanted the situation documented. Officers gathered all necessary information for the report while waiting on the ambulance. The offender exited to residence and began arguing loudly with the victim behind her vehicle. Officers placed the offender into custody, at which time the offender denied any involvement and the victim stated "it wasn't her". Additional family members exited the residence and began arguing loudly and denying any involvement. It was determined the original subject that was placed into custody was in fact the offender. As Officers attempted to resecure the offender into handcuffs, she continued to yell loudly and pull away. Several people were outside and children were being picked up for school next door by a school bus. AMR arrived on scene to assist the victim with his injuries. The offender was transported to VCCC.
