Officers were able to contact Berry over the phone and he explained that he and Johnson have a verbal agreement for shared time with their daughter. Berry said this was his agreed upon weekend to watch his daughter and he was out at an apartment with her, where she fell asleep and they were going to stay the night. Berry said Johnson found out about this and got upset, saying she wanted her daughter back. Berry eventually told Officers where he was and throughout conversation with him he affirmed the safety of his daughter. Berry told Officers he was taking his daughter back home.		AKER, B. W.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Johnson told Officers she allowed Berry to take her child and Berry came to her residence to pick her up. Once Johnson believed her daughter was at a location she did not want her to be with Berry, she called 911. A supervisor was contacted and the decision was made to let the child remain with Berry. Johnson was provided with a case number and informed Officers she was going to Berry's address to get her daughter back, even if it meant going to jail. Both Berry and Johnson were advised to seek a court agreement for child custody. This is an ongoing issue, see case number 25-19542. Due to Johnson making the claims about going to Berry's address, Officers made their way to the address and located Johnson sitting in her vehicle in front of the address. Johnson approached Officers and advised that she was going to get her daughter back regardless of the advice she was given by Officers. Johnson knocked on the door and after not receiving an answer she returned to her vehicle. A few minutes later Berry exited the residence with the child and placed her into Johnson's vehicle. Johnson then left with her child and Berry returned to the residence.
