	Communication- Intimidation
	On 11/7/25 at approximately 0836, I, Officer J. Myers, and Officer Hassler arrived at the listed address (Circle K) for a harassment in progress. The victim, Brandi Baker, stated she was in the gas station checking out, and the clerk became verbally aggressive, threatening to fight with her. Baker said the clerk then followed her to her car, took her work shirt off, and started yelling at her through her car window. Baker had her 4 year old child in the car with her.
	I spoke with the manager of the Circle K, Kristina Barrett. Barrett showed me security footage from inside the store of the clerk/suspect, Regina Skinner, and Baker getting into a verbal argument over Baker's moving the card reader. As Baker walked out of the store, I heard Skinner yell "beat the fuck out of you." The security cameras did not have footage of Baker's vehicle in the parking lot, but they do show Skinner walking out of the store after Baker.
	I spoke to Skinner. She said she was in a verbal argument with Baker about her moving the card reader. Skinner said she did say she would "beat the fuck out of" Baker. Skinner said Baker was disrespecting her. Skinner also said she followed Baker to her car and approached her windows. She said she went back into the store immediately after approaching the vehicle.
	Baker was given a case number.
