Officers observed the steering column and ignition was severely broken and a screwdriver was in the front driver seat. Officers made contact with the owner's roommate and he confirmed that no one was supposed to have the vehicle and no one else had a key to the vehicle. A report was generated for auto theft. The roommate stated he noticed the vehicle was missing at 11:30 p.m. the night prior, about 2 and a half hours before officers located the vehicle. He stated he had not called 911 because he wanted to confirm it was stolen with the registered owner before calling 911. A report number was left with the roommate and no one has been able to make contact with the registered owner at this time. A crime scene detective responded to process the vehicle. The vehicle was rendered undriveable and was towed from the scene to Tri-State Towing.	HYNEMAN, J. M.
