Tot.Est.Loss: $950. On 12/12/25 at approximately 0715, I, Officer J. Myers, arrived at the listed address for a residential burglary report. I made contact with the victim, Cheree Tomlinson. Tomlinson stated her attached garage had been broken into while she was not home. She stated she came home at approximately 0630 and found her main garage door open and the man door on the side of her garage open. She said she closed the garage door and man door before leaving her house last night at approximately 1700. Tomlinson said she is fairly sure she locked the man door, but the garage door does sometimes reopen after she closes it. I did not observe any signs of forced entry on either door. Tomlinson stated a $500 PlayStation 5, a $300 60" Roku TV, and two $150 Speedway bikes (one red, one blue) were taken. The total of the stolen property was $1,100. The items remaining in the garage did not appear to have been otherwise disturbed. She stated her adult children were asleep on the second floor of the home during the time window the burglary occurred. She said the door connecting the garage to the home was still secure when she came home, and she did not believe entry had been made into the rest of the home. Tomlinson stated she had touched all of the surfaces in the garage that prints could have been pulled from, so crime scene was not called. Tomlinson stated she did not have any cameras and did not know of any neighbors with cameras. I did not observe any cameras in the area. Tomlinson did not have any suspect information nor any possible suspects known to her. Tomlinson was given a case number.	MYERS, J. J.
