Reported: 12/13/2025. Officers were dispatched the gym at Highland Elementary School for a fight. The initial call was that parents were attacking coaches. The ref(VI) would also call in stating the problem was 5-6 parents. When I arrived nobody was actively fighting. I spoke with ref who is also the victim. He stated he was on the floor calling a 1st and 2nd grade coed basketball game that was in the fourth quarter. He called a foul on the offender's son. The offender is also an assistant coach for that team. When the foul was called the offender went onto the court yelling at the victim. The victim and all witnesses stated the offender chest bumped the victim before shoving him. Everyone described the shove as a violent shove. The victim did not fall but he did state his back was hurting afterward. After the offender shoved the victim multiple people ran onto the court. Some were trying to break it up but others appeared to be instigating. While be escorted to the exit by others the offender was heard saying "I know where you live". The victim was supposed to ref more games but had to leave due to his back pain. He stated it was "hurting pretty good" but was unsure if he was going to the doctor. Even after he left he said it was hurting worse than when he was still on scene. He stated if it continued to get worse he would get checked out. The two male witnesses were at the scorer's table. One was keeping score and the other working the clock. They both said the game had been called fairly. They said after the last foul the offender ran onto the court chest bumped the ref and then shoved him hard nearly knocking him down. The female witness was waiting to coach in the follow up game. She did not have anything to do with these two teams or coaches. She stated she was watching the game and it appeared that it was being called evenly. She said after a foul call the offender ran onto the court chest bumped the ref and then shoved him. She stated once this happened and people started running on the court numerous kids were in the gym crying. I also noticed when I walked in that several kids around the gym appeared to be upset. The IO who runs the league came to the scene. He spoke with several individuals and attempted to call the principal of the school. The offender had left before officers arrived. He was not located.
