The property manager stated someone called the office and said they thought there was a fight happening at the listed address. The property manager stated she went to the apartment to knock on the door and saw there was blood on the ground and the front door. The property manager stated she knocked several time but no one answered. The property manager wanted an officer to go back to the apartment with her to try and make contact with anyone in the apartment to make sure there wasn't anyone that needed medical attention. The property manager and I went to the apartment and knocked on the window and door. The listed IO, Donte Meriwether, answered the door. The property manager told Meriwether that she wanted to make sure everyone was alright due to the broken glass and blood that was outside his front door. Meriwether apologized and said he would clean everything up. The property manager told Meriwether that was fine but she was more concerned about whoever was bleeding and wanted to make sure everyone was ok. Meriwether said they were ok it was just a little cut from the glass. Meriwether used the term "we" more than once. The property manager asked about whoever else was in the apartment and if she could see them to make sure they were ok. This is when Meriwether noticed my presence. Meriwether then tried saying it was just him in the apartment. Meriwether stated his girlfriend had left so it was only him in the apartment. I explained to Meriwether that we just wanted to make sure there wasn't anyone in the apartment with a serious injury. Meriwether continued to say he was the only one there and then I heard a females voice from inside the apartment say Donte's name. I told Meriwether I could hear the female and just needed to see her to make sure she was ok. Meriwether then opened the door to allow me in. I asked Meriwether who the female was and he said her name was Faith (listed offender). Meriwether stated she had just got out of the shower and was in the bathroom naked. Meriwether referred to the female as Faith several times until the female told Meriwether to stop calling her Faith and that her name was Amber. As I entered the bathroom the female had a washcloth and belt wrapped around her hand and blood was steadily coming out from under the washcloth. I asked the female if I could see her wound and she showed me her right palm that had a large gash in it. I told the female to keep pressure on it and sit down so she didn't fall over. The female sat down and asked me if I wanted her name a date of birth. The female then gave me a name, date of birth, and last four of a social security number. After the Evansville Fire Department arrived to help with medical treatment, I asked Officer Healy to stay with them while checked the females information. I then found that the female was lying about her name and personal information. The female/listed offender, Faith Powers, told police, fire, AMR, and the hospital staff the false name and information. After finding Powers correct information, I found that Powers had a fully extraditable felony warrant out of Vanderburgh County. Powers continued to insist she was not Powers until we left the hospital. As I was escorting Powers to my patrol vehicle she openly admitted that she lied about her name and personal information because she did not want to go to jail for her	GIBSON, S. E.
