The reporter stated this was not true and that the offender stole the truck and the title.  Due to the totality of the circumstances, Officers could not prove that the vehicle ever belonged to the reporter without a bill of sale or a document stating she purchased the vehicle. Two days later on 01/14/2026, the reporter emailed officers a photograph of a bill of sale for the listed vehicle. The bill of sale the reporter sent was a piece notebook paper with a statement from the seller stating they sold the vehicle to the reporter for $3,500. The bill of sale had a signature from the seller and their name and contact. The bill of sale was photographed by officers via their bodyworn camera. Officers were unable to make contact with the seller to confirm they sold the listed vehicle to the reporter. Officers made a report to document the incident and sent it to Auto Theft Unit.
